

Biography

Maximilian Thomasius

Maximilian Thomasius serves as Chief Financial Officer of Airbus Helicopters North America.

Prior to joining Airbus Helicopters, Inc., Max held the role of Vice President and Head of Global Business Controlling for Airbus Helicopters in Marseille, France, where he headed all Finance organizations for over 30 subsidiaries.

He has been part of the global Airbus team in various roles since 2010 and has served on several boards, including Joint Ventures such as Patria Oyj in Finland or Helibras in Brazil.

His career started with General Electric (GE) going through its finance leadership training program including Corporate Audit Staff with worldwide missions in the diverse GE businesses.

Max earned a Master of Science degree in Economics from Universitat Pompeu Fabra in Spain, and a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Politics from the University of York in the United Kingdom. He served in the Germany Army and is currently Lieutenant Colonel in the reserves.

